PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On November 15, 2006, EMCORE Corporation (the "Company") announced that a Special Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, comprised solely of independent directors, completed a voluntary review of the Company's historical stock option grant procedures initiated by senior management. The key findings and conclusions of the Special Committee are summarized in a Current Report on Form 8-K and a press release filed on November 15, 2006.

The Special Committee recommended, among other things, that the Company should recognize, for accounting purposes, additional compensation expense with respect to certain stock option grants. The Company is continuing to review the findings of the Special Committee, the specific facts of the Company's stock option grants, and the relevant authoritative accounting guidance, including the guidance regarding stock option granting practices recently published by the SEC to determine (i) the precise amount of non-cash compensation charges for equity-based compensation, (ii) the related tax consequences to the Company and its employees, (iii) for which specific prior periods a restatement of its historical financial statements may be required, and (iv) the precise impact of the additional non-cash compensation charges, tax consequences and restatements, if any, on its financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 and the quarter ended December 31, 2006. Accordingly, the Company is unable to file its Form 10-Q for its first fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2006 within the prescribed time period and does not currently anticipate that it will be able to file this Form 10-Q by February 14, 2007, the extended deadline provided under Rule 12b-25(b)(2)(ii).

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).
☐Yes ☒No
- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? (*) ☐Yes ☐No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company noted in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on November 6, 2006 that the non-cash charges for stock-based compensation expenses that it expects to record principally will affect fiscal years 2000-2003. However, as described above, the Company has not yet determined the precise impact of such charges and any related tax consequences on its financial statements, including those for years after 2003. Accordingly, at this time the Company cannot reliably anticipate whether, and to what extent, change would occur in the results of operations for the financial statements to be included in its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 or in its financial statements to be included in its Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2006.

This notification of late filing on Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements regarding the Company's expectations concerning the impact of anticipated non-cash charges for stock-based compensation expenses on its financial statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current expectations and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements, including risks and uncertainties relating to developments in regulatory and legal guidance regarding stock option grants and accounting for such grants. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
